

EXPORTS TRADE VERY LARGE.

America's Manufactured Goods Find Good Markets Abroad.

Washington, August 15.—Statistics compiled by the bureau of statistics of the department of commerce and labor show that the exports of manufactures in the fiscal year just ended amounted to $543,620,297, as against $452,415,921 in the preceding year, $432,551,756 in 1900 and $183,595,743 in 1895. Of manufactures, the exports for the past fiscal year were not only the largest on record, but in excess of the combine exports of all articles in the centennial year 1876 and nearly $140,000,000 more than the total imports and exports of the country at the close of the civil war.

Cotton manufactures present one of the striking features of the year's exports, having advanced from $22,403,713 in 1904 to $49,666,000 in the year just ending. The growth occurred chiefly in cotton cloth exports, $14,696, being the total in 1904 and $41,320,542 in 1905. To China there was an increase of about 400,000,000 yards over last year's exportation of 769,000,000, and the value of our cotton cloth exports to that country increased from $4,690,000 in 1904 to $27,750,000 in 1905. Japan was the only other country to show a considerable increase, the total being 16,000,000 yards, as against 4,400,000 in 1904.

BRUTAL ATTACKS OF NEGRO.

Assaulted Minister and Wife and is Killed Resisting Arrest.

Boston, N. Y., August 15.—The Rev. Bernard Schulte and his wife, of New York city, were attacked at Mechanicsville probably fatally injured by a negro, who was shot and killed in Saratoga while resisting arrest.

Mr. Schulte came to Mechanicsville recently to take charge of the Episcopal church during the absence of the rector. Dr. Oliver Shaw Newell, who is in Europe. Early last evening Williams Curtis, a negro whose home is in Saratoga, came to the door of the rectory and asked for a drink of water.

As Mr. Schulte turned to get the water the negro drew a lead from under his coat and felled the clergyman with a terrible blow on the head, following this up with a rain of blows until his victim lay unconscious and apparently dead.

Mrs. Schulte hurried down stairs and was struck down before she could utter an outcry, the negro beating her so that she can hardly recover. Curtis was found in a negro colony, and attempted to escape. A policeman then shot and killed him.

Given Up to Die.

B. Spiegel, 1204 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run-down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good, and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured." J. W. McCollum & Co.

JUST TEA LEAVES.

The Spectacle They Present Under a Powerful Microscope.

"Have a look," said the histologist. And he rose from the beautiful, delicate microscope, and his companion took his place.

There was a little fiddling and adjusting of tiny screws. Then the tyro said:

"Ugh! Ghastly! What have we here—a railroad wreck?"

"You are looking," answered the histologist, "at a part of the remains of a Ceylonese caterpillar."

He withdrew that slide and put another in its place.

"Another tragedy?" the tyro asked.

"The remains of a beetle," the histologist replied.

A third slide was placed beneath the lens.

"This," said the tyro, "should be a battlefield."

"It is only," returned the scientist, "a commingling of the desiccated fragments of a fly, a centipede, a moth and a slug."

The tyro yawned.

"Histology is interesting," he said in a bored voice. "Where did you get these specimens?"

"Out of a packet of tea."

"A packet of tea? What kind of tea?"

"Ordinary tea."

"Heavens! I am a tea drinker. Explain yourself."

The histologist, smiling, said:

"Tea grows on bushes. The leaves are plucked by hand. Imagine yourself stripping rosebush after rosebush, miles on miles, of their leaves. Well, that is what tea picking is like."

"The native pickers work fast. They pick as many as twenty-five pounds of leaves a day—a bundle bigger than a man."

"Now, the tea plant is the prey of a hundred insects, and the picker in his haste doesn't pause to brush off each leaf or to wash it, for he works, as we say, by piece work."

"The picked leaves are dried on charcoal fires. They shrivel under the heat and the insect, larvae and chrysalids among them change to dust. This dust looks to the ordinary eye like leaf fragments, but under the microscope it looks, as you remarked, like an insect railroad wreck or a pygmy battlefield. It tastes like—but you know as well as I do what it tastes like."

"Tomorrow," said the other, "I am going to bring some of my wife's tea here to examine with you."—New York Herald.

Public is Aroused.

The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach, liver and kidneys. Mary H. Walters of 546 St. Clair Ave., Columbus, O., writes: "For several months I was given up to die. I had fever and ague, my nerves were wrecked; I could not sleep, and my stomach was so weak, from useless doctors' drugs, that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters, I obtained relief, and in a short time I was entirely cured." Guaranteed at all drug stores; price 50c.

Bacon and the Fishers.

In "Aubrey's Lives" this quaint story is told of Lord Bacon: "His lordship, being in the garden looking on fishers as they were throwing their nets, asked them what they would take for their catch. They answered so much. His lordship would offer them not more, but so much. They drew up their nets, and in it were only two or three little fishes. He then told them it had been better for them to have taken his offer. They replied they hoped for a better draft, but, said his lordship, 'Hope is a good breakfast, but an ill supper.'"

A Paper House.

"Only think," exclaimed Fenderson, "of the many uses to which paper is now put!"

"I know," replied Bass. "I was at the theater the other night, and I was told it was all paper, and it was a fine, substantial looking structure too."

The Hole in the Roof.

No man is belittled by having a decent roof over his head, and no bishop is made a saint by living in a hovel.—From "The Bishop's Niece," by George H. Picard.

It is really the errors of a man that make him lovable.—Goethe.

Another Good Man Gone Wrong.

He neglected to take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first signs of kidney trouble, hoping it would wear away, and he was soon a victim of Bright's disease. There is danger in delay, but if Foley's Kidney Cure is taken at once the symptoms will disappear, the kidneys are strengthened and you are soon sound and well. A. R. Bass of Morgantown, Ind., had to get up ten or twelve times in the night, and had a severe headache and pains in the kidneys, and was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure. J. W. McCollum & Co.

More Accurate.

Mrs. Muggins—When your husband takes you to the theater does he go out between the acts? Mrs. Buggins—Yes, if you want to put it that way. He comes in between the drinks.—Philadelphia Record.

Gain and Loss.

He—You women are queer. For instance, a girl cries when she's getting married, as if she were losing a husband instead of getting one. She—Yes, but she's losing a lover.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Nothing Ventured.

Ada—Timid, isn't he? May—Awfully. He's so afraid that she'll say no that he won't give her a chance to say yes.—Brooklyn Life.

Love of our neighbor is the only door out of the dungeon of self.—MacDonald.
